

Liquid, Steam, Compressed air

As part of a new build project, we can integrate the fluid part.

We maintain a close relationship with the main players in the fluids market in the cereal industry sector.

As such, we can support you to best size your equipment and comply with your RFP specifications, whether this is for distributing compressed air, managing various liquids or producing steam, so that you can make the choice that best matches your needs.

